

Workshop announcement:

4th Workshop of Process, Person and Society
Conflict, Communication, and Emotion

May 23 and 24 (9-12)

Richard Mortensen Stue, Studenternes Hus

Speakers:

Kathleen Higgins, philosophy, University of Texas at Austin (USA):

Music, Peace, and Rising to the Occasion

Peter Harder, linguistics, University of Copenhagen:

Between ideal communication and discursive struggle:

The emotional and intercultural significance of piecemeal platform-building.

Claudia Welz, Theology, Center for Subjectivity Research, Copenhagen:

The Self as Conflict: Guilt, Recognition and Reconciliation

Ib Ravn, Learning Lab Denmark, Danish Pedagogical University, Copenhagen

Understanding Conflict as an Opportunity for Social Development

Thomas Brudholm, Danish Institute for International Studies, Copenhagen

The Role of Resentment in Conflicts after Mass Atrocities

Susanne Kramer, Theology, University of Aarhus

From vengeance towards reconciliation.

Carsten Bagge Laustsen, Political Science, Aarhus University

In Defence of Religion: Sacred Referent Objects for Securitization

Jesper Garsdal, History of Ideas, Intercultural Philosophy, Aarhus University

Intercultural reflections on the ideas of conflict, activity of non-action, polarity

and imagination in relation to inter-religious and philosophical dialogue

The workshop is open to all; lunch and dinner registration at filseibt@hum.au.dk